GLOBAL MENTORSHIP INITIATIVE

Change a Student's Future With One Hour a Week

Global Mentorship Initiative (GMI) connects professionals like you with underserved students who are preparing to launch their careers. As a mentor, you can help a first-generation, low-income or refugee student build confidence, develop career-ready skills, and take their first steps toward a thriving career.

Our structured 10-session curriculum makes mentoring simple, flexible, and meaningful. You don't need teaching experience — just the willingness to share your journey and what you've learned along the way.

Every mentorship creates a bridge to opportunity

Mentoring with GMI is more than giving back. It accelerates professional growth, while connecting you to a powerful global mission.

You'll strengthen leadership skills, expand your global perspective, and build emotional intelligence which sets great leaders apart.
